

BALLYGALLY
CASTLE

“THERE ARE NO STRANGERS HERE...
ONLY FRIENDS YOU HAVE NOT YET MET.”

Ideally located on the scenic Antrim coast, only 26 miles from Belfast and close to Larne, the Ballygally Castle faces the soft, sandy beaches of Ballygally Bay. The Castle dates back to 1625 and is unique in that it is the only 17th Century building still used as a residence in Northern Ireland today. The hotel is reputedly haunted by a friendly ghost and brave guests can visit the ‘ghost room’ in one of the towers to see for themselves.

BEDROOMS

The 44 bedrooms at the Ballygally Castle are full of character and charm. Beautiful, original beamed ceilings, combined with tasteful contemporary decor, add to the welcoming atmosphere. From the beautiful Antrim Suite, with its spectacular panoramic views to the new Garden wing and the original period rooms, uniquely shaped by the castle's imposing architecture - the choice is yours.

CONFERENCE AND BANQUETING SUITES

The Ballygally Castle provides a unique setting for special events - including medieval banquets, weddings and corporate functions where you can literally take over the entire Castle, or you can simply have a small meeting in the most peaceful of surroundings.

The hotel boasts three well equipped and flexible conference suites. From the exquisite River Room, overlooking the trout stream and Irish Sea, to the medieval Dungeon or 1625 Room, you will be delighted to hold your event at the Ballygally Castle.

WHILE YOU'RE WITH US

The Ballygally Castle has a wealth of recreational activities within easy reach and can serve as the perfect base for exploring this stunning area of natural beauty. Carrickfergus Castle, the world-renowned Glens of Antrim and the famous Giant's Causeway are all close at hand. Those wishing to explore on foot will enjoy the beautiful walks to be found in Carnfunnock Country Park, which is within walking distance, or simply enjoy a leisurely stroll on the beach opposite the hotel.
