

BALLYGALLY
CASTLE

Your Wedding

Couple's Names: Joe and Keri Bradley

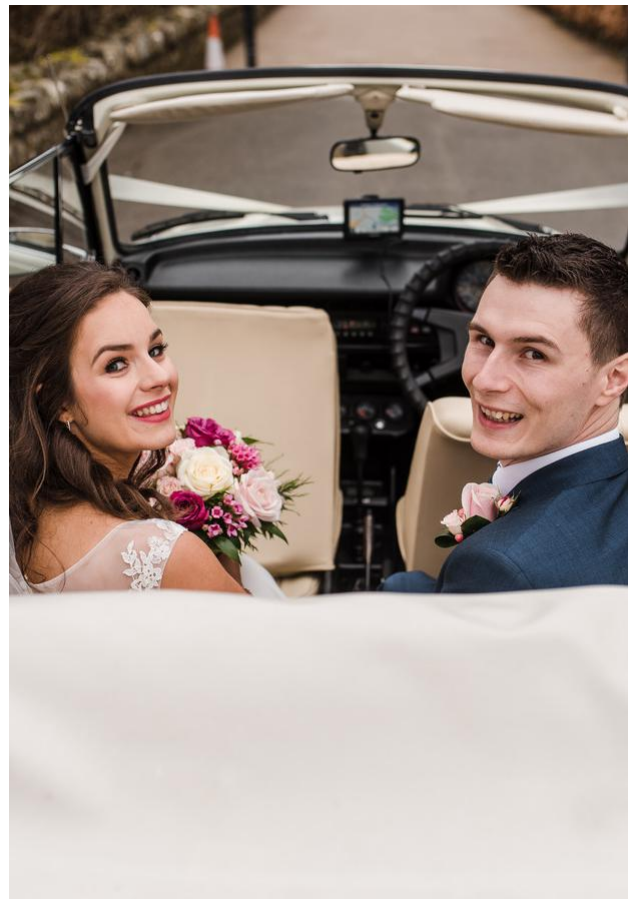

Venue: Ballygally Castle

Wedding Date: 12th April 2018

Joe and Keri met in 2015 while Keri was on her placement year from University.

The proposal took Keri completely by surprised when Joe popped the question on his birthday following a romantic dinner in Portrush. The couple walked along the beach to the spot when Joe first told Keri he loved her and he got down on one knee. Keri claims she got him to ask again as she missed the proposal the first time due to her surprise.

The couple chose Ballygally Castle as the venue because of the location, the view, the gardens, beach and our one wedding per day policy.

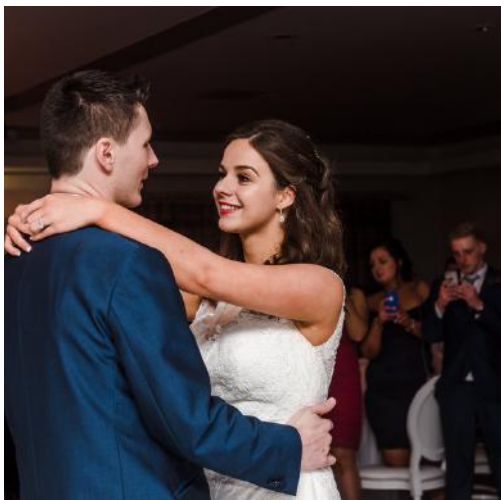

Did you follow any wedding trends or have any specific themes for the big day?

The couple wanted their wedding celebration to be relaxed and fun. They didn't have a distinctive theme but the day had a rustic and vintage feel. The colour scheme was a raspberry pink to match the bridesmaid dresses and for the centrepieces, Keri chose vases with a floating flower and flowers to match the bouquets on top.

The room and flowers were by Leaf Designs and the couple was thrilled with the design and decor. When we opened the doors to the Kintyre Ballroom the room looked beautiful. Keri and Joe had a Polaroid camera guest book and later a photo booth which lots of the guests enjoyed alongside an ice cream cart, sweet cart, prosecco, cocktails and giant Jenga.
